Physically challenged handlers are encouraged to participate. Handlers shall provide the judge with a written description of how they intend to perform any of the course exercises (submit with entry on separate sheet of paper).

Move Ups: Same day move-ups will be permitted, please note it is the handler's responsibility to inform the Trial Secretary before their next event.

- All dogs must be kept in a crate or on leash when not in the ring (x-pens are allowed). Handlers are responsible to keep their dogs quiet at all times and clean up after their dogs. Handlers are responsible to clean up after their dogs and exercise them in appropriate areas only. Any dog engaging in aggressive behavior at any time will be required to leave the trial grounds. There will be no refund of fees in such instances.
- Any handler displaying inhumane or aggressive treatment of any dog, or other participants, judges or volunteers, be it physical or verbal, while on site, will be asked to leave the trial grounds. There will be no refund of fees in such instances and all legs earned will be null and void.

The Rally Novice A Class. The A stream is for the handler who is an inexperienced beginner – who has never titled a dog in any sport. They have not instructed or assisted with dog training classes in any sport. In effect, this is the first time they have worked a dog towards a title. Once the handler has obtained their RN title, they may continue to the Advanced A stream with the same dog. There is no A or B stream in Excellent or Versatility.

When a competitor has attained their first Advanced A title, they are considered “experienced” and must compete in the B stream with any other dogs they handle.

A handler must own the dog entered, or be a member of the owner(s) household or immediate family to compete in Novice A.

For Exhibition Only” (FEO) Dogs competing under FEO are not eligible for placements in the class.
